

TONI KOHN

MS, RD

An opportunity to ask questions to our expert dietitian about supporting your loved one with meals.

Toni Kohn is a licensed dietitian specializing in the treatment of eating disorders. She works with a wide range of clients from those simply struggling with their relationship to food to more severe cases of anorexia, bulimia and binge eating disorder. She earned her Master's Degree in Nutrition Science from California State University, Northridge in '95, and immediately opened a private practice. She has trained with many experts in the field and continues to expand her knowledge with seminars, supervision, research and mentoring. She is now supervising and training other practitioners in the field for how they may better work with their eating disorder clients.
