

In my eyes is a digital artwork designed by me, Eleanor Shen. In my eyes illustrates what I see when I look at myself. This piece investigates my Chinese heritage as the piece primarily depicts a large eye. As the stereotype of Chinese people having “asian eyes” stands, I decided to draw my eyes looking at myself, showing how I, an asian-american, love my eyes as well as embrace and cherish the way I look.

